THEATRE Limited Engagement

Jersey Boys

Through November 22
Bank of America Theater 18 W Monroe

The 2006 Tony Award-winning Best Musical about four blue-collar kids who gained pop stardom as The Four Seasons.

Fake

September 10 – November 8
Steppenwolf Theatre 1650 N Halsted

In this drama based on true events, mystery writer Sir Arthur Conan Doyle invites four guests to his home to discuss the "Piltown Man," purported to be the missing link between ape and man but later exposed as a hoax.

Animal Crackers

September 18 – October 25
Goodman Theatre 170 N Dearborn

In the classic Marx Brothers stage and screen comedy, chaos ensues when a celebrated sculpture is stolen from a mansion during a party and the guests attempt to find the burglar.

Blue Man Group

September 23 – December 31
Briar Street Theatre 3133 N Halsted

This long-running and constantly evolving hit show combines performance art and slapstick comedy into a unique theatrical event.

Lucinda Childs: Dance

October 15 – October 27
Museum of Contemporary Art 220 E Chicago

A performance of the seminal work by the postmodern choreographer, created in collaboration with composer Philip Glass and artist Sol LeWitt, in honor of the 30th anniversary of its debut.

The Walworth Farce

October 28 – November 1
Shakespeare Theatre Navy Pier

Ireland's Druid Theater Company performs a tragicomedy by Enda Walsh ("Bedbound") about the struggles of a failed, fifty-something playwright and the two adult sons he lives with.

Fedra: Queen of Haiti

September 30 – November 15
Lookingglass Theatre 821 N Michigan

A world-premiere performance about the tragic consequences of a woman's passion for her stepson.

Cats

October 13 - 18
Cadillac Palace Theatre 151 W Randolph

A national touring production of the blockbuster musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber, based on T.S. Eliot's "Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats."

The House on Mango Street

October 13 – November 1
Steppenwolf Theatre 1650 N Halsted

The House on Mango Street is the touching and humorous story of a young girl growing up in one of Chicago's Latino neighborhoods. Esperanza Cordero dreams of a new life far away from her tiny home on rundown Mango Street in this classic coming-of-age story about those defining experiences that shape our beliefs and help us discover who we are.

Carpenters' Halloween

October 14 – November 7
Mary's Attic 5400 N Clark

Local cabaret duo Scott Bradley and Jonny Stax perform a campy musical tribute to the 1978 John Carpenter slasher film "Halloween." The story follows a disturbed man who murders baby-sitters, set to music by Karen and Richard Carpenter.

Young Frankenstein

November 3 – December 13
Cadillac Palace Theatre 151 W Randolph

A New York surgeon must face his family's tortured past when he inherits a castle and laboratory in Transylvania.

RESTAURANT OF THE MONTH

SEPIA

123 N Jefferson St
www.sepiachicago.com

Seamlessly melding refined and rustic, vintage and contemporary, Sepia has the feel of an instant classic. Stylish without being sleek, the space is warm and inviting, comfortable yet lively. Attention to detail runs throughout Sepia—both in the room and on the plate—from the custom tile Art Nouveau floor to the hand-crafted millwork to the vintage stemware, the easy elegance of the room serves as the perfect backdrop to the inventive American cuisine. Chef Zimmerman's product-driven seasonal menu showcases the purity and quality of the ingredients, letting both the ingredients and his passion for what he does shine through. Sepia celebrates tradition—with a modern twist.
